		VAT at 14%, including consumables: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Egyptian Citizens/Private shippers have to pay full duties & VAT to import their used household goods. ▪ All private shippers not having a Letter of Guarantee must pay duties and VAT in cash. ▪ The Letter of Guarantee states an amount of money corresponding to the amount of duties and VAT to be paid; these funds are placed into a bank account and released to the shipper when moving out of Egypt; at that time, all items must be exported, otherwise customs duty and VAT plus fines will be paid on each missing item. Letter of guarantee is called partial exemption - it results in very fussy inspection by customs and it results in damages to the shipment. Since recently, some items cannot be covered by the letter of guarantee and duties will apply. ▪ The Guarantee can only be obtained with a Work Permit and Work Visa for a well know entity staff members. ▪ Used household goods and personal effects can be imported duty free for expatriates working within governmental or private sectors under the terms of temporary admission and subject to full exportation by providing a Ministry guarantee or bank guarantee. This is only granted if the consignee provides a work visa valid for a minimum of 3 months. ▪ The Inventory must state the model, brand, size and content (e.g., Sony 40" Television) for all electrical and electronic items. ▪ Wood packaging must be treated and
